	18. -	House just north of Baglung. The Kali Gandak river is to the right and down about three thousand feet. The house is on a little plateau and on the side of the hill where the city of Baglung is located.
	19. -	Further up the Kali Gandak River beyond Beni. The mountains are steep here. Elevation is about 35 hundred feet. In the background is Mount Dhaulagiri, 26,800 feet.
	20. -	Kali Gandak river and trail as it cuts through the mountains above Dana and below Ghasa. Dana is at an elevation of approximately five thousand feet and Ghasa approximately eight thousand feet.
25X1	 21. -	Inhabitants of the town of Tukche, North Nepal.
	22. -	Annapurna showing a glacier on the north-northeast of the range. Camera facing west-northwest from the main road at about eight thousand feet. Thanksgiving day 1949.
25X1	23. -
		Kali Gandak River at nine thousand feet.
	24. -	Trail coolies approaching Ulleri Ridge from the south. Beyond the Ulleri Ridge about 15 miles was the large town of Pokhara.
	25. -	Building along the road beyond the Ulleri Ridge near a town called Dirithanta at an elevation of about four thousand feet.
25X1	 26. -	Pokhara Valley. This is about eight day's journey by foot west of Katmandu. In the background is the Annapurna range. Note terracing. Population is relatively heavy.
